

Steve—Guitar, Drums, Piano

Music is one of the greatest experiences in the world. One can get great satisfaction as either a listener or a player in this amazing art. If you feel a need to actually create music, hands on, then Steve is the teacher for you. Steve has taught drums, guitar and piano for over 20 years. He specializes in getting results quickly in any musical setting the student is interested in. Rock, jazz, blues, reggae are all styles a student can learn and apply quickly. Students of all ages and levels of musical understanding are welcome in Steve's schedule. With Steve, students can reach for the stars! Steve enjoys humor too. He feels music should be fun and wants students to learn, play and have fun doing it.
